

Ordination/Consecration Seminars

Candidates are required to attend the following six seminars (if one is missed, it must be made up the next time it is offered). Required reading reports are due at the beginning of each seminar.

Candidates should bring three copies of their position papers, and be prepared to read and/or present parts of their papers. See your ordination/consecration guidelines for format.

Each seminar will include:

1. Discussion on Topic of position papers (led by a facilitator who has expertise on the subject)
2. General sessions (led by D.S. or appropriate leader on any issues and updates concerning the ministry and ordination/consecration process, etc.)
