

Will your family still get along when you're gone?

Even in the best Christian families, children fight over the details of their parent's will or trust. They may stop talking to each other for years. This certainly doesn't honor God and is not the legacy we want to leave behind. If the Lord called you home today, do you have a will or trust that biblically provides for your loved ones and protects their relationships?

If not, we can help!

Our church has a Will and Trust Planning Ministry to bless you in this important area of stewardship. This confidential ministry is a gift to you with no cost or obligation. We've partnered with The Orchard Foundation, a subsidiary of The Alliance, to serve you. The Orchard Foundation has top Christian professionals who can help you design your will or trust from a biblical worldview. With a few simple phone calls, they will fully prepare you from a Christian perspective to have your will or trust drafted by your attorney.

For more information, call The Orchard Foundation at 888-689-6300 or email GiftPlanning@theorchard.org

Will your family still get along when you're gone?

Even in the best Christian families, children fight over the details of their parent's will or trust. They may stop talking to each other for years. This certainly doesn't honor God and is not the legacy we want to leave behind. If the Lord called you home today, do you have a will or trust that biblically provides for your loved ones and protects their relationships?

If not, we can help!

Our church has a Will and Trust Planning Ministry to bless you in this important area of stewardship. This confidential ministry is a gift to you with no cost or obligation. We've partnered with The Orchard Foundation, a subsidiary of The Alliance, to serve you. The Orchard Foundation has top Christian professionals who can help you design your will or trust from a biblical worldview. With a few simple phone calls, they will fully prepare you from a Christian perspective to have your will or trust drafted by your attorney.

For more information, call The Orchard Foundation at 888-689-6300 or email GiftPlanning@theorchard.org