LEAVING AN ETERNAL LEGACY

A legacy is what we leave behind to our loved ones or to the world in general. A legacy can be something tangible such as a bequest from our will like money or land. It can also be intangible like kindness, faithfulness and generosity.

As believers, the idea of leaving a legacy that honors the Father should be of critical importance to us. When you stop to think about it, the only legacy that truly matters is one that has eternal value. One way to create an eternal legacy is by leaving a bequest to your church and other ministries you love. In that light, we hope that you would prayerfully consider leaving a bequest to (INSERT NAME OF ORGANIZATION) as part of your legacy. We promise to carefully steward your gift to (INSERT HOW FUNDS WILL BE USED).

There are many ways you can leave a bequest to (INSERT NAME OF ORGANIZATION), and other ministries you care about. For example, leaving excess retirement assets is usually the best place to start in order to avoid taxation; but, there are lots of other options as well.
